

George H. Howard, second lieutenant, 326th Infantry. For extraordinary heroism in action near St. Juvin, France, October 16-26, 1918. On the 16th of October, he was severely wounded by a machine-gun bullet which struck him in the hip. After having his wound dressed at the first-aid station, he refused to be evacuated but instead returned to his platoon and continued to lead it for the remaining 10 days of the engagement. Although suffering intense pain from his wound, he constantly refused to leave his command until ordered to the rear by his battalion commander.

Ilud Joseph Zimmer, second lieutenant, Company A, 5th Div.
